

N O V E M B E R S E S S I O N, 1783.

empowered to draw on the treasury for a sum of money not exceeding five hundred pounds, to defray the expence incurred in making such repairs.

W H E R E A S it appears to this general assembly, that the Chevalier d'Anmours, consul general of France, has been admitted and recognised by the United States in Congress assembled consul general of France for this state, the commonwealth of Virginia, North-Carolina, South-Carolina, and Georgia; and he having produced to this general assembly the appointment and commission of his sovereign his Most Christian Majesty, and the exequatur of Congress duly attested by the secretary thereof; and it being necessary that this state should acknowledge the Chevalier d'Anmours consul general of France, as consul general of France for this state; therefore RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby directed to recognise the said Chevalier d'Anmours, consul general of France, to be consul general of France for this state, and furnish him with an exequatur in due form.

RESOLVED, That the intendant of the revenue lay before the general assembly, in the first week of next session, the different accounts, agreeably to an act, entitled, An act respecting finance, in the same manner, and as fully, as he is directed in said act, as well that ordered to be laid before the general assembly at their meeting in November, as those to be exhibited at every session.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and is hereby directed to stop issuing executions against the purchasers of British property, until the end of the next session of assembly; and that no further proceedings be had on the executions which have already issued against the said purchasers; provided that the interest due on the purchase money shall be paid on or before the first day of June next.